

PERMANENT CLUB WAS ORGANIZED

Bryan, Stevenson and Lamb Club Disbanded Last Night.

CITY COUNCIL WILL MEET.

A Marriage in Amelia—Central Church Question Yet Unsettled—News, Personal and Brief.

Manchester Bureau, Richmond Times, No. 102 Hull Street.

The Bryan, Stevenson and Lamb Club of Manchester disbanded last night. The meeting was largely attended and clearly demonstrated the fact that Democracy is alive in the city. Hon. D. L. Toney presided over the meeting, and in a brief talk argued the advantage of a permanent Democratic club in the city, and suggested that such a step be taken. With the approval of all present, and the organization of such a club was begun last night. The following were elected officers: D. L. Toney, president; R. E. Owens, vice-president; J. C. Pulliam, treasurer, and H. A. Jordan, secretary. Twenty-five members were enrolled, and committees on a name for the club and by-laws were appointed. The club will advocate the reorganization of the Democratic party. The first meeting will be held next Thursday night at the hall, held next Thursday night at the hall.

Mr. Harry J. Warthen, of this city, and Miss Ada Marian Sheppard, of Amelia county, were married Wednesday at "Marble Hall," the bride's home. Mr. and Mrs. Warthen will make their future home in this city.

ASBURY CHURCH.

An interesting meeting was held at Asbury Church Wednesday night. The purpose of the meeting was for the inactivation of money collected by the children for the purpose of planting windows in the new church. A large amount was raised by each Sunday-school class. The largest amount was raised by Miss Rosa Wallis's class. This class raised about five hundred dollars. The other classes raised eight or nine months in this school. Miss Ida Jennings raised nearly one hundred dollars herself.

COUNCIL TO-NIGHT.

The regular meeting of the Council will be held to-night. Much interest centers in the meeting as there are several important matters to be disposed of. It is probable that a committee representing the property-holders in the vicinity of Central Methodist church will wait on the body and call the attention of the Council to the proposed purchases of the Council to the colored people. The Council will be asked to purchase this property.

VOTE COUNTED.

The vote of the presidential election was canvassed yesterday morning in the office of Clerk DuVal. The official count is as follows:

Bryan, 447; McKinley, 412. Bryan's majority, 35.

Lamb, 229; Allan, 364. Lamb's majority, 135.

James Brooke and Theodore Brown (colored) were before the Mayor this morning, charged with drunkenness. Both were given ten days in jail.

REVIVAL SERVICE.

Rev. Dr. A. E. Dickinson, of the Religious Herald, was at Branch Church Wednesday night with Rev. N. C. Collier, who is holding revival services. Dr. Dickinson, while unable to preach, made a very earnest appeal to the unsaved to come to Christ.

There have been a great many professions of religion, and quite a number have been united with the church. Mr. Collier will baptize them in Bainbridge Baptist Church to-night, when the meeting will close and Mr. Collier will go to Roanoke.

PERSONAL AND BRIEF.

Carrie Shephardson, the colored girl who was badly burned at the home of Mr. Samuel R. Owen Tuesday afternoon, is recovering.

UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA.

Modified Plan of Scholarships—To Complete the Hospital.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)

UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA, VA., Nov. 8.—At the fall meeting of the Board of Visitors of the University of Virginia, the following members were present: Charles P. Jones, Charles P. Jones, H. H. Downing, of Front Royal; R. Walton Moore, of Fairfax; George W. Miles, of Radford; and Daniel Harmon, of Charlottesville.

The faculty was requested to study the details of a modified plan as to the public school scholarships and to put such plan into effect upon the approval of the executive committee. The purpose is to devote the same aggregate to these scholarships, but to divide the total differently.

Arrangements were authorized with John P. Pettyjohn & Son, of Lynchburg, the contractors, to proceed to the completion of the hospital now under construction at the University. It was stated that the work is to be finished in January.

The Board elected the following executive committee, to serve until the next annual meeting: Daniel Harmon, of Charlottesville; Charles P. Jones, of Highland; George W. Miles, of Radford; and Carter Glass, of Lynchburg.

We thanks of the Board were tendered to Dr. and Mrs. Jam. A. Harrison for the gift of two hundred volumes bearing on Southern literature.

PERSONAL AND GENERAL.

Interesting Facts About Richmond's Citizens and Other Matters.

Jessie Jayr (colored) is under arrest at the Second Station on the charge of criminally assaulting Annie Johnson, also colored.

Mr. James Pender, a prominent lawyer of Tarboro, N. C., is in the city. He is a brother of Mrs. James W. Gordon and of Mr. George Pender.

Senor Fernando Albertini, of Havana, was in Richmond yesterday for a few hours on his way to Washington. He was on Gen. Garcia's staff.

The Retail Clerks' Association held a well-attended meeting at Smith's Hall last night, adopted by-laws and elected a large number of new members.

REORGANIZATION. THE WATCHWORD

Democratic Leaders Say That This is the Course That Must be Pursued.

A group of prominent Democrats sat in the lobby of Murphy's Hotel last night, consulting one another upon the results of the election.

Among them were Judge James W. (Clyde) Marshall, of Raleigh; Mr. R. H. Henry, of Tidewater; Colonel John G. Richardson, Register of the Land Office; Captain R. T. McLeod, of the State Auditor's office; and Judge John G. Dew, Second Auditor. Judge Marshall, cheered them up now and then with one of his humorous jokes, suggested by something that happened in connection with the election on Tuesday, but between his witticisms they would drop into a more serious mood, and suggest some plan by which they must stick to the lead.

"I must extricate myself from the throes of defeat. It was agreed on all sides that there would have to be a reorganization, and that party lines would have to be reformed."

The Democrats of Richmond are overwhelmingly in favor of a reorganization of their party. Few are willing to be quivered, but they privately admit that free silver must be dropped, and that Mr. Bryan must be retired from the lead ship. They say the new man in must take the places of James K. Jones, Wm. J. Stone and others who have directed the last two campaigns.

Hon. James W. Marshall, of Craig county, said he was one of Mr. Bryan's greatest admirers, but it was now apparent that the people of the country did not approve of some of the Nebraska's peculiar principles. "The party must be reorganized," said Judge Marshall. "We must stick to the Jeffersonian principles. Of course changed conditions may necessitate new issues, but I don't think it will be necessary to add much to the doctrines laid down by Jefferson. We must look to New York, New Jersey, Maryland and other States that us to go Democratic. We can hope for nothing from the Western States that are naturally Republican."

There is no doubt that Judge Marshall's views are shared by the vast majority of Democrats—Democrats who supported Bryan, and Democrats who did not vote for him.

The Constitutional Convention question, which was held in abeyance during the national campaign, has very naturally come to the front again, and is being much discussed by the Democratic leaders.

Hon. Charles V. Meredith and ex-Artillery General R. Carter Scott are among those whose names are freely mentioned on the streets as members of the convention.

There will be two vacancies in the Virginia elections last Tuesday. It is understood that both Senators Maynard and Flood, who were elected to Congress from the Second and Tenth Districts, will hold their seats until after the extra session of the Legislature from Buckingham. They will be chosen to fill Senator Flood's seat.

It is said that Mr. George Lindsay, of Norfolk county, will probably succeed Senator Maynard, while there is hardly a doubt that Hon. E. W. Hubbard, representing the House of Delegates from Buckingham, will be chosen to fill Senator Flood's seat.

Mr. Woodson Here.

Mr. Frank S. Woodson, the editor of the Newport News Herald and the Evening Times of the same city, was here last night. He was a Palmer and Backus man in 1886. At that time he edited the Danville Register. After the election four years ago Mr. Woodson wrote an editorial urging the Democrats to "get together" and adopt a platform upon which could agree. He said this must be done in order to succeed. Mr. Woodson stated that if this should not be done in 1900, it would be done before 1904. He is now fully convinced that the Democrats will take steps to reorganize the party.

WIDE AND WALKER TO CONTEST.

Chairman Agnew Not Willing to Concede Big Democratic Majority.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)

ALEXANDRIA, VA., Nov. 8.—To-day Chairman Agnew of this city, State chairman of the Republican Committee, made a statement to the effect that he did not believe that the Democratic majority in this State was as large as is claimed by the Democrats. Mr. Agnew is of the opinion that the majority will not exceed that of four years ago, which was something like 20,000.

From telegrams Mr. Agnew had received from various sections of the State it shows that the Republicans have made enormous gains throughout the State, although the Presidential ticket, as was expected, headed the Congressional ticket.

He stated that it is more than probable that Representative Wise, Republican, of the Second District, will contest the election of Maynard, Democrat, for Congress, although the Democrats claim that Maynard was elected by about 8,000 majority.

Mr. Agnew says Walker, of the Ninth District, will expect, also make a contest over Rhea's election. The Democrats assert that this was elected about 1,500 or 2,000. He says the Republicans say that frauds were committed in the Ninth District.

Mr. James Thomas Nowlin is in extremis, and is not expected to live many hours.

Graphic Brevities.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Two bodies were taken from the ruins of the Tarrant building to-day.

PENSACOLA, FLA., Nov. 8.—No electric cars have been run on any of the lines here since 11 o'clock this morning, the motormen and conductors having gone out on a strike.

MADRID, Nov. 8.—At a cabinet council held to-day the Premier said there were now no Carlists under arms in Spain, and that the rising had failed completely.

MEMPHIS, TENN., Nov. 8.—Lt. Nabors (colored) shot and killed J. L. Holcomb (white), near Coahoma, Miss., last Wednesday, and to-day his corpse was found swinging to the limb of a tree.

ELEGANT WEDDING AT DURHAM, N. C.

An Alliance Between the Dukes and the Carrs.

FORTUNE IN WEDDING PRESENTS

General Carr Is Grand in Defeat and Grateful to His Friends—A Report That the Republicans Are Claiming the State.

(Special Dispatch to The Times.)

DURHAM, N. C., Nov. 8.—George Leontidas Carr, a grandson of Washington Duke, and Miss Snowdon Carr, eldest daughter of L. A. Carr, were married in the Presbyterian Church last evening. The presents they got make a small fortune. The bride's trousseau, valued at $10,000, for a tour of the Northern States and Canada.

General J. S. Carr, though largely defeated for the Senate by Hon. F. M. Simmons, spent yesterday in going around the town, even to obscure places, and thanking the people for the almost unanimous vote given him in Durham, showing that he was grander in defeat than most men in victory.

George Sales, hailing from Richmond, died in the Watts Hospital last night of consumption, aged about thirty years. The election has stopped tobacco receipts considerably this week. Prices have an upward tendency.

A REPUBLICAN REPORT.

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., Nov. 8.—Republicans are circulating a report here that North Carolina has gone for McKinley. They say their leaders are claiming the State by nine thousand. Democrats don't believe the report, though it is known Bryan's majority is much smaller in the State than expected.

It is reported that Mr. Augustus H. Price, of the House, of Salisbury, will succeed Mr. Spencer Blackburn as Assistant District Attorney of the Western North Carolina District. Mr. Blackburn, who is the next Congressman from that district, declined to say to-day when he will resign the Assistant District Attorneyship.

VOTE IN FORSYTHE.

The official vote of Forsythe was canvassed yesterday. It shows that McKinley carried the county by 105, instead of Bryan, as first reported. The majority for Mr. Buxton (Dem.) is 174. J. B. Fort, Independent candidate for Congress, received 500 votes, and W. J. Allen, Prohibition candidate, Mr. Simmons' majority over Carr for United States Senate is 1,800.

North Carolina.

GREENSBORO, N. C., November 8.—J. R. Joyce, the defeated Republican candidate for the Senate, is in the Fifth District, will contest the seat of his successful Democratic opponent, W. W. Kitchin. The contest will be made on the basis of fraud, which is charged in four counties.

BOTH SIDES STILL CLAIM KENTUCKY

messages received at Republican National Headquarters to-day by N. B. Scott, from doubtful points, Mr. May gave out the following statement:

"Full returns to-day leave the situation as it was yesterday. We have won by every Northern State but Colorado, Nevada and Montana, with ten votes. We have carried Kentucky, Maryland, Delaware, and Virginia. We predict that we will carry the entire campaign, they are attempting to rob us of the electoral votes in Kentucky under the power of the Geobal law. If they succeed, we shall have 25 electoral votes."

Our candidate for Governor wires that we have carried Kentucky for the electoral ticket, and elected him by over 7,000 majority. The time has come when the American people ought insist on receiving the votes that they have honestly cast."

Senator Scott, in answer to telegrams inquiring as to the result of Nebraska, received the following from Mr. Boeckmer, member of the National Advisory Committee, who is a candidate for the United States Senatorship from Nebraska:

"Returns from rural districts incomplete, but no doubt whatever that McKinley carries Nebraska by not less than 600 majority. Both houses of Legislature will be Republican by small majority."

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Larus presented a rarely beautiful scene last evening, when their daughter, Miss Jennie Baldwin Larus, was married to Mr. John Hobart Reed.

The entire lower floor was converted into a bower of beauty, with its elaborate decoration of palms and banks of ferns and glistening white tapers. Behind a screen of palms an orchestra, consisting of the strings of a Lobenstein and a piano, was caught in a shower of lilacs of the valley.

She was accompanied by her maid of honor, Miss Daisy Yarbrough, of Staunton, who wore white Paris mouseline, elaborately trimmed in lace, and carried white chrysanthemums.

Misses Fannie Guy, Charlotte McChesney, Louise, of Norfolk, and Margaret Bull, of Norfolk, were the bridesmaids and wore dainty white organza gowns, with lace boleros over pale green silk. They carried large bunches of white chrysanthemums.

The ribbons were held by Messrs. Charles Reed, Stanley Reed, Leslie Reed and Charles Larus. The bride was met by the groom and his brother, Mr. Pleasant Reed, who acted as best man, and an inviolable ally, escorted her to the windows in the front parlor. Here the ceremony was performed by Rev. Robert P. Kerr and Rev. A. H. Kippam.

After the ceremony an elegant reception was held. The dining-room was decorated in pure white. White satin ribbons and smilax were suspended from the chandeliers, and in the centre of the beautifully appointed table was a shower of white chrysanthemums.

Among the out-of-town guests here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Luther Sheldon, Mr. Luther Sheldon, Jr., Miss Louise Sheldon and Miss Margaret Bull, all of Norfolk; Mrs. Robert Stone, of Bradford, Penn.; M. B. Yarbrough, of Staunton, Va.; Mrs. Sinton Gwatney, of Staunton, Va.; and Mrs. Wellford C. Reed, of Keewick, Va.

The bride is the beautiful and attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Larus, and is a favorite with a large circle of friends. Mr. Reed is chief clerk of the Southern Railway, and is very popular in social circles.

After an extended northern tour the young couple will reside at No. 3 West Grace Street.

The wedding of Mr. George Edward Duvert, of Dunkirk, N. Y., and Miss Fosi Schumacher, of this city, was solemnized at St. John's German Evangelical Church at 9 o'clock last night. The ceremony was performed in most impressive style by Rev. A. A. Menzel. The edifice was filled with relatives and friends, and the happy couple, the bride was preceded to the altar by her attendants, and was joined there by the groom and his best man, Dr. J. A. Keck. The altar was fully decorated with palms and ferns, and illuminated with white chrysanthemums and illuminated by white candles, placed in unique candle-holders.

The bride, the talented and attractive daughter of Mr. Edward Schumacher, of this city, was attired in white duchess satin, trimmed with black lace. Her veil was fastened in her hair with orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. The maid of honor, Miss Louise Zimmermann, was becomingly gowned in Nile-green silk, trimmed with black lace, and carried white chrysanthemums tied with white illusion.

The bridesmaids, Misses Pauline Brown, Angeline Kelly, Lillie Matern, Lena Lange, Mamee Keck and Marie Schaefer, were attired in white satin, with garniture of Nile-green ribbon. They carried white chrysanthemums tied with white illusion.

The following gentlemen were the ushers: Messrs. Henry Haase, Henry Zimmerman, Charles A. Keck, Leroy M. Lee, Beverly M. Eoff, of Christiansburg, and Frank M. Thompson, of Stanley, N. C. After the ceremony a splendid reception was given the young couple at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Keck, Leroy M. Lee, Beverly M. Eoff, of Christiansburg, and Frank M. Thompson, of Stanley, N. C. After the ceremony a splendid reception was given the young couple at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Keck, Leroy M. Lee, Beverly M. Eoff, of Christiansburg, and Frank M. Thompson, of Stanley, N. C.

The opening ball of the Jefferson Club, which took place last evening, was most delightful affair. The club-house presented a brilliant appearance. The halls, ballroom, library and reading-room were all profusely decorated in palms and growing plants. The married couples, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Levy, Mr. and Mrs. Moses May, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Greenwald, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Cohen; Misses Fanny D. Mitterdorfer, Corinne Strauss, Nora Heller, of Washington; Amelia and Ethel Brumfield, of New York; Ella Seale, Helen Thibaut, Rosalie Held, Rebecca Heller, Miriam Milner, Miriam Rosenbaum, Messrs. A. J. Marquis, Lee and Ike Reinhardt, Ike Wallerstein, Barney Albert Wise, M. O. Marouse, M. M. Mitterdorfer, S. M. Block, Eugene Constine, Milton J. Strauss, Ike Greenbaum, Milton Binswanger, M. Rose, Aaron Jacobs, L.

The magnificent gowns, worn by the ladies added to the brilliancy of the scene. Dancing began at 9 o'clock, and at 12 an elegant supper was served in the dining-room.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Milton Marouse, Mr. and Mrs. Meyer Kirch, Mr. and Mrs. L. Z. Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. I. I. Strauss, Mr. and Mrs. I. Marouse, Mr. and Mrs. S. Block, Mr. and Mrs. Max Cohen, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wallerstein, Mr. and Mrs. Leon L. Strauss, Mr. and Mrs. M. G.
